

Kresge Hearing Research Laboratory Continuing Education in New Orleans

How to Identify and Manage Patients with Auditory Neuropathy/ Auditory Dys-synchrony

February 17-19, 2005
New Orleans, Louisiana

Learn about OAEs and ABR – techniques, hands-on practice and lots of case studies

Course includes lectures, hands-on instruction, notebook and CD, daily breakfast at the hotel and transportation between the course hotel and course site.

Guest Speaker: Arnold Starr, MD

Kresge Lab Speakers and Faculty:

Charles Berlin PhD, Linda Hood PhD, Thierry Morlet PhD, Bronya Keats PhD

Tuition: $450 ($400 previous Kresge and Vanderbilt attendees)

* Continuing Education – AAA CEUs available *******

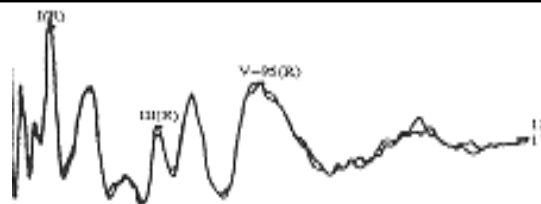

Contact:

Course Coordinator
Kresge Lab – LSUHSC
533 Bolivar Street
New Orleans, LA 70112
Phone: 504-568-4785, Fax: 504-568-4460
Email: kresgecourse@lsuhsc.edu

Visit our website: www.kresgelab.org

Course hotel: Rooms available at the Iberville Suites in the French Quarter (504-523-2400) at $159 per night. Reservations should be made before 1/17/05.

If you think this might be a normal ABR in this 12 msec time window, you need this course:

Learn from our database of over 300 patients with auditory neuropathy/
dys-synchrony.

And All That Jazz!